Mr. Azevedo pled guilty to criminal nonsupport charges in 2004, at which time he made a lump sum payment of $10,000. One of the conditions of his probation was to make his weekly child support payments. Unfortunately, the conviction did not change his behavior and he has failed to pay his child support as required. He was a corrections officer around the time of his child's birth but more recently has worked in the construction field and as a carpet layer.
